It must be submitted to the Independent Gambling Control Office (IGCO) each year on or before the registration anniversary date (THIS IS usually the date THAT registration was approved by IGCO) for the term of the registration.

Costs of Background Investigations: Section 180 and 181 Gaming Control Act.

Prior to the commencement of a background investigation, applicants for registration will be required to submit a deposit equal to the IGCO's written estimate of costs of the background investigation. The costs of a background investigation include but are not limited to the cost of the IGCO's staff time at $150 per hour (per person), out-of-province travel costs, and where it is deemed necessary, the engagement of specialized financial management, or investigation advisory services.

Payment Methods: Wire transfers, money orders or company cheques are accepted.

Wire transfers – Please contact gaming.registration@igcabc.ca for instructions and banking details.

Alternate Payment Methods: If paying by money order or cheque, please make it payable to the “Minister of Finance” in Canadian funds. Do NOT submit cash.

Additional funds may be required to cover any special investigation, auditing, or administrative costs considered necessary by the IGCO to ensure a thorough and complete background investigation of the applicant or registrant.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

Additional registration information is available on the IGCO Website.

WHAT IF I HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS?

If you have questions about the disclosure documents or the registration process, contact the Licensing, Registration and Certification Division – Corporate Registration Unit at (250) 356-0663 or by email at gaming.registration@igcabc.ca.

RESPONSES

Print or type your responses. Answer all questions fully and truthfully. If a question does not apply to you, state “Not Applicable” or “N/A”. If more space is required cross reference the attachment to the relevant question.

Read each question carefully. Submitting the application gives the IGCO authority to investigate your answers. If you do not fully disclose, leave out important information, or answer incorrectly, your application may be denied.

If it is determined after you have been registered that your answers on this application were false, incomplete, or misleading, or you failed to notify the IGCO of any material change to this information which occurs after the application has been filed, your registration may be cancelled.

You are seeking the granting of a privilege and the burden of proving suitability for a favourable determination is at all times on you. You must accept any risk of adverse publicity, embarrassment, criticism or other action, or financial loss, which may result from action with respect to an application and expressly waive any claim for damages as a result thereof.

After completing the forms, ensure that all required documents are signed and that the application fee is included. (NOTE: The individual signing this document must submit a scanned colour copy of a valid government-issued ID that includes their full legal name, date of birth, signature and photograph - such as a driver's licence or passport - along with the application.)

Retain a copy of your application and all submitted documents for your records. Be prepared to bring your copy to any personal interviews that are conducted.

WHERE DO I SEND THE COMPLETED FORMS AND FEES?

The Disclosure Form and supporting documents are to be submitted electronically, on a flash drive, or via a file-sharing service. To submit the disclosure form(s) and supporting documents using the IGCO's FTPS site, contact the Corporate Registration Unit at gaming.registration@igcobic.ca and request a temporary FTPS account.

Should the disclosure forms and supporting documents be submitted as physical copies, applicants/registrants will be charged $150 per hour for the time IGCO staff spend on scanning the documentation.

Documents should be in English. If any document is in a language other than English, the applicant should provide the IGCO with a copy of the original document as well as an English version translated by a certified translator.

Attachments should be properly named and provided as separate files per the Attachment Checklist included in the disclosure. Not respecting the naming convention and/or submitting the documentation as a single file will create additional delays and costs in processing the application.

The disclosure submission, flash drive (if applicable) and/or registration fee payment are to be sent to:

MAIL/COURIER:
Independent Gambling Control Office
Corporate Registration Unit
220 - 4370 Dominion Street Burnaby BC V5G 4L7

WHAT HAPPENS ONCE I SUBMIT MY APPLICATION?

All information and documents provided as part of this disclosure become the property of the IGCO and will not be returned. An application may not be withdrawn without the written permission of the IGCO. Application fees are not refundable.

Expect an IGCO investigator to contact you. You may be required to provide other information in addition to what is requested in this application package.

Successful applicants will receive a registration approval letter and a certificate of registration from the Director of Corporate Registration.

CHANGE OF INFORMATION

If any of the information changes subsequent to the submission of this disclosure form, you must immediately submit the changes in writing to gaming.registration@igcobic.ca.

HOW WILL THE INFORMATION IN THE APPLICATION BE USED?

Except as provided in the Consent to Release of Corporate Information form, all information provided in this application, including attachments and supporting documents, shall be kept confidential in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (BC).

You may direct questions about the collection and use of this information by email gaming.registration@igcobic.ca to the Director of Corporate Registration, IGCO.
